

THE ATLANTA FINANCIAL CENTER is located on Peachtree Road, just south of Lenox Mall and Phipps Plaza, directly next to the Intercontinental Hotel. At the traffic light between the Atlanta Financial Center and the Intercontinental Hotel, the street between those two buildings will lead you into our parking garage. Once you take your ticket at the entrance to the parking garage, you will take an immediate right to find Rollins' two reserved guest parking spaces located on that level. Our spaces are located on the left side of the aisle, beginning six spaces after the aisle break and after the section of SunTrust spaces. The spaces are not numbered, but they are clearly marked with signage reflecting our name. Remember to bring your ticket with you to our office so it can be validated.

Our office is in the East Tower, which is the middle building that is directly across from covered breezeway leading from the parking garage to the building. From our reserved spaces, walk inside the parking garage toward the wall that says "North Tower." (There are three towers which make a U-shape, and the East Tower is the bottom of the U.) If you end up in the South or North Tower first, don't worry -- the concierges at the doors will be happy to point you in the right direction. After walking under the covered breezeway, you'll be inside the East Tower. You will then take the far left elevator bank up to the fifth floor. We're in Suite 500 next to the elevators.
